FROM THE VICAR'S DESK

PRAYER

JAMES 5: 13 - 18: "The effective and fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" (verse 16)

Dear All, Greetings!

We are entering the second quarter of 2023. During the past quarter, the elections of officers for the New Year 2023 of our parish and organizations were completed; also completed during the past quarter was our plan for the year. In the coming days, it is very important that we strive to undertake our responsibilities beautifully and prayerfully.

This includes conducting our Area Prayers. We should take care to hold the Area Prayers without interruption. Area prayer is as necessary for the spiritual growth of the parish as our family prayer.

A prayer is an act of asking for a favor and particularly with earnestness. It is to make a request in a humble manner and to address God with adoration, confession, supplication, and thanksgiving. Prayer can be done individually or in a group but should always be incorporated with faith.

F. B. Meyer, the author of the great little book, The Secret of Guidance, said, "The great tragedy of life is not unanswered prayer, but unoffered prayer. Every day like breathing, eating, walking, and talking, praying is something we need to do. Prayer is the greatest resource where untold treasure remains. We talk about it many times, but we practice it less than anything else."

The letter of James gives emphasis on what and how much prayer can do. Prayer is not just wishful thinking. When we pray, we communicate with the Creator of heaven and earth, who loves us and invites us into His presence to receive grace.

Sometimes we pray earnestly, but our prayers are unanswered. There are two answers to this problem. First, sometimes God delays the answers we seek, to keep us in humble dependence on Him. Sometimes God waits to provide the answer to keep us continually seeking Him, or for other reasons that we may not understand. Secondly, in some instances, God answers "NO", for His own reasons that we cannot understand. This is where we must trust Him and His omniscient ways. We pray for many things that seem to us to be for God's glory and according to His will, but He overrules our prayers with His sovereign purpose.

When we see the delay, we lose heart and give up praying. We need to remember that prayer links us with the omnipotent God. James writes, 'Pray earnestly.' Paul says in I Thessalonians 5:17, 'pray without ceasing.' The reason we often do not pray earnestly is that we do not properly see how weak and inadequate we are and how powerful the enemy of our soul really is. We should pray more earnestly in every aspect of our lives.

With love and prayers,
Shaji Achen

YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Dearly beloved in Christ,

There is a saying that we all recognize, and it goes like this “April shower brings May flowers”. Throughout the springtime, we go through many days of rain, and it can seem cozy with a cup of coffee or tea, but the grey skies and the pouring water limits us with indoor activities. Although we would like to have some days of rain, going through many days of rain is overwhelming.

That is the same thing with life. We all face our gloomy days, sometimes we would even want to run away from them and enjoy the ‘tropical getaways’ of life. But remember, we can persevere through the hardships of life, and although we may not see past our gloomy days, there will be blue skies with sunshine that will follow. The gloomy days are sometimes necessary for life and growth to happen, like how a rainy period is followed by a period of multicolored flowers and greenery that appear.

Every moment in our lives is a sharpening moment, to make us better, especially more equipped to live for God. Even as we celebrate this month as Resurrection Month, it is a reminder. Jesus also had His gloomy days of fear and anxiety where He also prayed out loud “take this cup away from Me”, but He followed it by saying that it was not about His will or desires, but the will of the Father.

Jesus completely surrendered to the calling given to Him. But the resurrection experience was the promise that God redeemed all of humanity. God's purpose for each of us is a great purpose, but it may also require us to face trials and challenges. It is important to be reminded that we are always fulfilled by surrendering to God's will and by living for Him. So many times, we live for ourselves, and may ‘feel’ happy in the moment, but we will never be complete if we live for ourselves. That is the reality that we see in many celebrities today – they are famous and have everything materialistic but are mostly miserable.

Likewise, even in our limitations, we know we are truly blessed if we devote our lives to God. That even means devoting everything – not just our struggles, pain, and sorrow but also our good. If we know that our lives are pointing towards God, then we are complete. This is because this world cannot complete us, only God can.

Throughout March, by God's grace, the college campus visits have been a blessing, and it is continuing throughout April until finals week. I have been able to visit our youths who are studying in New York, New Jersey, and Philadelphia colleges. Let us pray for our college-going youths for wisdom and strength to study for the Lord. Every week we are having in-person Men's Bible Studies on Wednesdays at 8 PM, and Justeena Kochamma has Women's Bible Studies on Saturdays at 7 PM via zoom. Please encourage our youths to make use of these studies.

Wishing everyone a blessed April and a Happy Resurrection Day! Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is Risen!

Much love,
Rev. Jess M. George

SECRETARY'S CORNER

As we approach the spring season, our thoughts turn to two important holidays: Easter and Memorial Day. While these two holidays may seem quite different at first glance, they both hold significant meaning and offer important lessons for us as Christians.

Easter, of course, is a time when we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is a time of joy and new beginnings as we reflect on the incredible sacrifice that Jesus made for us on the cross and the hope that His resurrection offers. As the Apostle Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 15:17, "If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile, and you are still in your sins." Resurrection is the foundation of our faith, and Easter is a time to celebrate this fundamental truth.

But Easter is not just a time to celebrate the past; it is also a time to look to the future. As we celebrate the victory of Christ over death, we are reminded that we, too, will one-day experience resurrection. In 1 Corinthians 15:51-52, Paul writes, "Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed." This is the ultimate hope that Easter offers us: that one day we will be raised to eternal life with Christ.

Memorial Day, on the other hand, is a time when we remember and honor those who have given their lives in service to our country. It is a time of reflection and gratitude as we consider the sacrifices that have been made to secure our freedom and protect our way of life. As Jesus said in John 15:13, "Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends." We owe a great debt of gratitude to those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom.

But Memorial Day is also a time to remember the sacrifice that Jesus made for us on the cross. As we honor those who have given their lives in service to our country, we are reminded of the incredible sacrifice that Jesus made for us all. He laid down his life so that we could be saved, and his sacrifice offers us the ultimate freedom: freedom from sin and death. As Paul wrote in Galatians 5:1, "For freedom, Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery." Through his sacrifice, we are free to live as children of God.

As we celebrate Easter and honor Memorial Day, let us remember the sacrifice of Jesus and the sacrifice of those who have given their lives for our country. Let us give thanks for the hope that Easter offers us and the freedom that we enjoy because of the sacrifices of others. And let us strive to live lives that honor the sacrifice of Jesus and the sacrifice of those who have gone before us.

Painting of the gate - Main parking lot

This is all rusted and needs maintenance. We will be looking into this and will do the needful.

Electric Pole

The bent electric pole has been fixed; the pole is straightened and secured.

New Projects

Lobby Extension and handicapped bathroom.

Currently, we are looking into this project. We spoke with an architect and with a few contractors. We need a county permit to do this project.

Sanctuary Interior Renovation

Projects under consideration:

Main sanctuary – cleaning and polishing the wooden beams and toning down the black color of the pulpit, making the whole sanctuary lighter and brighter.

Updating the sanctuary floor – possibly replacing the carpet.

We will also tie up all electrical wires and remove all that is not necessary.

We are looking for contractors to do these jobs.

Replacement of HVAC System

A cost-effective system through PSEG to replace the existing HVAC system is under review. We are working with sub-contractors to get a quote for this project. An update will be provided in the next newsletter.

Building Pledge Fund

Funds are needed to fulfill all the above projects and to conduct the day-to-day operations of the church. All who had made a pledge for the building fund when they joined as new members (like every one of us), please provide us with a contribution when you come to church next time – whether small or big doesn't matter. Your contribution and support are important and helpful. Please see the trustee if you have any concerns or questions in this matter.

Mother's Day & Father's Day

Mother's Day and Father's Day are both important celebrations that honor parents and their contributions to the family and society. For people of faith, these celebrations also offer an opportunity to reflect on the spiritual aspects of parenthood and the important role that parents play in shaping the spiritual lives of their children.

Mother's Day:

Motherhood is a divine calling: In many religious traditions, motherhood is viewed as a sacred and a divine calling. Mothers are seen as co-creators with God, who nurture and care for their children with love, patience, and sacrifice.

Mothers embody the qualities of God: The Bible often uses maternal imagery to describe the qualities of God, such as nurturing, comforting, and protecting. Mothers, in turn are seen as a reflection of these divine qualities, providing a glimpse of God's love and care for humanity.

Mothers are to be honored and respected: The Bible teaches that children are to honor and respect their parents (Exodus 20:12, Ephesians 6:2). Mother's Day provides an opportunity to express gratitude and appreciation for the love, sacrifice, and hard work that mothers put into raising their children.

Father's Day:

Fatherhood reflects God's fatherhood: The Bible often portrays God as a loving and caring father who provides guidance, protection, and support to his children. Fathers, in turn, are seen as a reflection of this divine fatherhood, who model God's love and care for their children.

Fathers are to be actively involved in their children's lives: The Bible teaches that fathers are to be actively involved in the upbringing of their children, providing guidance and discipline, as well as being a positive role model and source of support (Proverbs 22:6, Ephesians 6:4).

Fathers are to teach their children about God: Fathers have a responsibility to teach their children about God and to pass on their faith to the next generation (Deuteronomy 6:4-9, Psalm 78:5-7). This includes modeling a godly life and teaching their children about the love, grace, and truth of God.

Overall, Mother's Day and Father's Day offer an opportunity to celebrate the sacred and divine calling of parenthood and to honor and express gratitude for the important role that parents play in the spiritual lives of their children. For people of faith, these celebrations can also serve as a reminder of the spiritual aspects of parenting and the importance of modeling godly love and care for our children.

Happy Mother's Day to all Mothers of the LIMTC

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers of the LIMTC

Things you need in a Natural Disaster

In a natural disaster, it's important to be prepared with the necessary supplies and resources to help you and your loved ones stay safe and comfortable. Here are some things you may need:

Water: It's essential to have a supply of clean drinking water, as access to clean water may be disrupted during a natural disaster.

Non-perishable food: Canned food, dry goods, and other non-perishable items are important to have on hand in case of a power outage or inability to access food.

First aid kit: A first aid kit should include basic medical supplies such as bandages, antiseptics, and pain relievers.

Flashlights and batteries: In case of power outages, it's important to have a flashlight and extra batteries on hand.

Portable radio: A battery-operated or hand-cranked radio can provide you with updates and emergency instructions.

Personal hygiene items: This includes items such as toilet paper, soap, and hand sanitizer.

Warm clothing and blankets: Depending on the disaster and weather conditions, it may be necessary to have warm clothing and blankets on hand.

Cash: Access to ATMs or credit card processing may be limited, so it's a good idea to have some cash on hand.

Important documents: It's important to have copies of important documents, such as identification, insurance policies, and important phone numbers, stored in a safe place.

Emergency contacts: Make sure to have a list of emergency contacts, including family members and friends, as well as local emergency services.
